

Call for Papers
Murmansk State Humanities University
Department of Social Sciences

arranges

International Science and Practice Conference

«Social Challenges of the European North: Experience and Perspectives of Sociological Research»

20-21 March 2014

Main directions of work:

- Processes of integration and international cooperation of the Northern regions;
- Sociocultural and ethno social processes in the European North;
- The level and quality of life of people in the European North;
- Man and Northern Nature: problems of ecological balance;
- Influence of migration processes on the state and development of the European North;
- Younger generation as the main strategic resources of the Northern regions;
- Gender and family in conditions of the North;
- Methodology and methods of sociological research of social challenges in the European North.

Application to participate in the seminar should include:

1. Name
2. Degree
3. Position in the institution
4. Institution
5. Address
6. Telephone / fax
7. E-mail
8. Name of presentation
9. Form of participation
10. Necessity of equipment for presentation
- 11) Necessity to book a hotel

As a result of the seminar a collection of articles will be published. The size of the article is 5-10 pages. Please, attach a short abstract to the article (2-4 phrases), information about the author (name, degree, position, e-mail).

The deadline for submitting the application and the article is the 15th March 2014.

Contact person: Inna Ryzhkova, Head of International Cooperation and PR' Office, innaryzhkova@yandex.ru, ipmcenter@mshu.edu.ru