

The Health and Well-being in the Arctic Thematic Network's summer/winter schools and workshops:

Below is a list of summer/winter schools and workshops organized with involvement from different partners and collaborators, often in connection with larger international conferences:

- Dietary assessments, Copenhagen 2010
- Research Communication, Nuuk 2010
- People in changing climate, Oulu 2010
- Reindeer herding, Kautokeino 2011
- Risk assessment and communication, Oulu 2011
- Snowtalks, Abisko 2012
- Health literacy and women's health, Fairbanks 2012
- Security in changing world, Oulu 2012
- Health, society and environment in relation to large-scale industrial projects, Nuuk 2013
- Cross Border Universities (CBU and BCU) multidisciplinary Summer Schools, Rovaniemi 2012 and Kuopio 2014
- Epidemiological studies, Kirkenes 2014 and Yellowknife 2015
- Community Based Participatory Research: Principles and Practices in the North:
 - Anchorage 2014, Oulu 2015 and 2016, St. Petersburg 2016
- Research methods and epidemiology in small population, Nuuk 2015
- Healthy populations in the Arctic, Oulu 2015
- Health in the Changing Arctic, French-Nordic symposium, Oulu 2016
- Barents Summer School, Kuusamo/Oulanka 2016
- Autumn School, Arkhangelsk and St.Petersburg 2016
- Science Session 4.4. "Circumpolar Health and Well-Being" under theme 4 "Building Long-Term Human Capacity" in connection with the UArctic Congress, St. Petersburg 2016
- Ethics and Research in Small Population in a Changing Environment, Nuuk 2016